

Communication and Language

Listening and responding to stories and information
Retelling stories
Listening attentively to what others say and responding with relevant questions
Maintaining concentration
Listening to and following instructions
Exploring new words and meanings

Personal, Social and Emotional Development

Understanding of others and their own emotions
Share experiences and interest with others
Remembering our classroom routines and rules
Looking after our world and caring for our environment
Sharing and turn taking skills
RE Celebrations-How do people celebrate?
Value- Perseverance

Physical Development

Moving and Handling
Handwriting letter formation
Handling tools, objects, construction and malleable materials safely and with increasing control such as scissors
Using apparatus to travel in different ways

Health & Self-Care

Doing up fasteners
Dressing for different weather conditions -
Cooking
Healthy eating
Shows understanding of the need for safety when tackling new challenges, and considers and manages some risks.

Mathematics

Number

Counting and sorting
Counting forwards and counting backwards
Focusing on mathematical language such as more, fewer less than Adding and Subtracting
Working with numbers to 20
Reading & writing numbers
Shape, Space and Measure
Using and creating charts and data handling
Days of the week, months of the year and seasons
My day - time and sequence
Applying their knowledge of 2D and 3D shapes

Ducklings Class

Topic 3

Winter adventures

Here are some things we may be learning about...

Literacy - Reading and Writing

Finding information from non-fiction books
Sharing stories
Continue with rhyming
Handwriting
Reading and writing words and making phonetically plausible attempts at more complex words
Writing and reading, labels, captions and sentences
Daily phonic sessions

Understanding the World

Religious festivals and celebrations
Talking about their observations of different environments
Explaining their observations
Caring for living things and the environment on Earth
Using a variety of technology
Using technology to research our topic

Expressive Arts and Design

Using the resources available for drawing, painting, collaging and construction
Engaging in role play and small world play
Safely using a variety of materials and tools
Representing their own ideas in ways that they choose
Dancing, singing and playing percussion instruments developing their own ideas