

1) Circle all the adjectives.

The huge, deadly dinosaur roared extremely loudly.

2) Put the comma in the correct place.

When the bell rang I packed up my things.

3) Replace the word in bold with its antonym.

The day before the storm, the sea was calm.

4) Which ending would make the word 'care' an adjective?

er

ed

s

ful

5) Write each of these words as a plural.

pony

key

leaf

6) State whether the words make a clause or a noun phrase.

1) it was an icy clear morning

2) but I didn't win

3) a chewy, sticky sweet on the floor

4) the local bakers near my school

7) Put a prefix at the beginning of each word to make it mean the opposite.

load

visible

patient

8) Match each word to its antonym.

simple

risky

cautious

individual

safe

careless challenging

group

9) Circle the preposition.

The barrier is open: walk through it please.

10) Match each of the underlined words to the correct word class.

Unfortunately, one child cried loudly all through the show.

noun

determiner

adverb

verb

11) Circle the adverb.

We sometimes have homework to do.

12) Circle the word in the sentence that is a relative pronoun.

"Whoever is ready must go to the hall for their lunch," he said.

must

he

their whoever

13) Write one word to complete the sentence in the present tense.

Every day, I _____ to school with my mum.

14) Complete the sentence with the correct pronoun.

When my sister and I finish school, _____ go straight to Grandma's house.

15) Rewrite into the active voice.

The painting was done by my sister.

16) Circle the mistake and correct it.

You is doing the washing up tonight.

17) Write down the subject and the object.

Aaron is building a rocket.

18) Underline the relative clause in the sentence.

The postman, who was whistling happily, put the letters through the letterbox.

19) What has been underlined in the sentence below?

"Please park your bike and come into school," said Miss Smith.

noun

verb

possessive pronoun

adverb

20) The word 'mistrust' begins with the prefix 'mis'. Which two words can also begin with the prefix 'mis'?

informed

understood

tidy

agree

21) Insert the missing colon.

I need these things to make the salad
lettuce, cucumber and tomato.

22) State whether each of the sentences is written in the passive voice or the active voice.

1) Alfie was photographed by Zoe on the beach.

2) I thought that it was a very dangerous experiment.

3) After the argument, Alex apologised to Emma.

4) I was carried by one of my friends across the stream.

23) What has been underlined in the sentence?

Liz ate a huge handful of salty crisps.

an adverbial

a relative clause

a noun phrase

a subordinate clause

24) What punctuation mark has been used between the two clauses?

Mr Hammond is an outstanding teacher - his lessons are always challenging and fun.

25) State whether the present perfect or past perfect form of the verb has been used in each sentence.

- 1) We had seen him before.
- 2) They have cycled to school.
- 3) He has eaten his apple.
- 4) Tony has seen the film before.

26) Replace the underlined words with appropriate pronouns.

Lee was lonely, so Zac and Ben invited Lee to sit with Zac and Ben at lunchtime.

27) State whether each sentence is a statement or a command.

1) After the match, scrape the mud off your boots.

2) When you get home, you will need to wash your football kit.

3) I want Lee to be our goalkeeper in the next match.

28) An incorrect preposition has been used in the sentence. Identify it and write a more suitable one.

I sat under Mr Gregory in assembly.

29) Change the question into a command.

Would you join in our game?

30) Match the prefixes to create new words.

de

dis

mis

over react

lead

connect activate

31) Which sentence uses brackets correctly?

1) Eleven children (five girls and six boys are coming) to my party.

2) Eleven children (five girls and six boys) are coming to my party.

3) Eleven (children) five girls and six boys are coming to my party.

4) Eleven children five girls and six boys (are coming to my party).

32) Circle the words which need a capital letter.

in july, I will be visiting africa and i hope to see some lions.

33) Circle the subordinating conjunction in each sentence.

1) Line up once the bell goes.

2) Whilst I was outside, it started raining.

3) Since I was wearing my coat, I didn't get wet.

34) Circle the incorrect modal verb and write another more suitable one.

Could you like to do some painting?